CLASSIFICATION TITLE: Director, Disability Resources

Department: Disability Resource Center  FLSA Status: Exempt
Staff Category: Administrative Association (Educational Administrator)  Salary Range: 64
Supervision Received From: Dean, Counseling Services  Original Date: July, 2012
Supervision Given: Faculty and Classified Staff in the Disability Resource Center  Last Revision: July, 2012

Class specifications are intended to present a descriptive list of the range of duties performed by employees in the class. Specifications are not intended to reflect all duties performed within the job.

JOB SUMMARY:
Responsible for performing educational administrator responsibilities related to planning, organizing and directing services for students with disabilities while ensuring compliance with Federal, State, and College laws, statutes, policies and regulations pertaining to students with disabilities.

DISTINGUISHING CHARACTERISTICS:
The Director, Disability Resources is distinguished from other directors by its responsibility for the College's Disability Resource Center.

ESSENTIAL AND MARGINAL FUNCTION STATEMENTS. Essential responsibilities and duties may include, but are not limited to, the following:

1. Performs full supervisory activities, subject to management concurrence and in accordance with applicable College policies, which includes: selecting and training new employees; planning, assigning, scheduling, and evaluating completed work; approving overtime/compensatory time; preparing and signing employee performance evaluations; recommending salary reclassifications; responding to grievances and taking appropriate disciplinary action; and performing related supervisory activities.

2. Plans, organizes, directs, and controls the activities, services, and operations of the department; establishes, implements, and enforces departmental goals and objectives.

3. Interprets, applies, and assures compliance with applicable laws, codes and regulations; remains current on applicable legislative decisions and developments.

4. Prepares, submits, and monitors the annual budget for the assigned department; researches and approves expenditures for services, supplies, and equipment in accordance with established policies, procedures, and protocols; solicits and evaluates funding options and requirements; prepares related budgetary and financial reports.

5. Provides for diagnostic assessment of learning disabilities; determines eligibility for support services and provides specialized advisement to students with disabilities as needed.
6. Develops and formulates program goals and objectives as well as office policies and procedures to assure optimum efficiency; monitors expenditures and assures the maintenance of adequate audit trails.

7. Assures compliance with State and Federal laws, mandates, and regulations applicable to educational opportunities and accessibility for students with disabilities.

8. Directs and evaluates interpretation function operations to assure compliance with applicable laws, regulations, and codes.

9. Communicates with District personnel and representatives of government agencies and professional organizations to coordinate services, refer students with disabilities and exchange technical information.

10. Oversees and participates in the preparation of comprehensive and detailed reports related to the operational, budgetary, and service activities for students with disabilities.

11. Develops and oversees the special classes in Community Education and Adaptive Physical Education.

12. Oversees the Adaptive Computer Center for students with disabilities including instructional classes.

13. Oversees the Disability Resource Center instructional program.

14. Directs the maintenance of a variety of records and files regarding services provided, student progress, program budgeting and personnel.

Marginal Functions:

1. Participates in/on a variety of committees, task forces, boards, meetings, and/or other related groups in order to receive and/or convey information.

2. Participates in shared governance through service on planning and/or operations committees and task forces.

3. Performs related duties and responsibilities as required.

QUALIFICATIONS

Knowledge of:

1. Managerial principles and practices.

2. Federal, State, local and District laws, regulations and policies governing individuals with disabilities.

3. Populations of individuals with disabilities.

4. Automated financial systems.

5. MIS reporting systems.

6. Disability classifications and characteristics.

7. Academic and vocational counseling principles and practices.

8. Resources for individuals with disabilities.

10. Assistive technologies.

11. Post-secondary special education programs.

13. Basic research methods and report writing techniques.
15. Public relations principles, including the use of tact, patience, and courtesy.
16. Community college organization, operations, policies, and objectives.

Skill in:

1. Supervising, training and directing the work of others.
2. Utilizing a computer and related software applications.
3. Analyzing and troubleshooting difficult situations accurately and adopting an effective course of action.
4. Establishing and maintaining effective working relationships with those contacted in the course of work.
5. Developing, administering, and maintaining program budget.
7. Communicating clearly and concisely, both orally and in writing.
8. Mediating difficult and/or hostile situations.
9. Effectively responding to all situations/incidents using sound judgment and decision-making skills.
10. Compiling and organizing data from a variety of sources.
11. Maintaining accurate and complete records.
12. Maintaining confidentiality and exercising discretion.
13. Planning, organizing, directing, and controlling the activities, services, and operations of the Disability Resource Center.
14. Providing technical expertise and guidance to District administrators concerning matters related to students with disabilities.
15. Working with individuals with disabilities to resolve a variety of issues raised by them.
16. Providing counseling and advisement services to students with disabilities.
17. Working independently with little direction.
18. Maintaining accurate and complete records.

Experience and Training Guidelines

Any combination of experience and training that would likely provide the required knowledge and abilities is qualifying. A typical way to obtain the knowledge and abilities would be:

Experience:

Five years of experience working with individuals with disabilities in an educational setting, including two years of supervisory experience.

Education/Training:

Master's degree in disability, education, special education, psychology, educational psychology, or rehabilitation counseling and fifteen semester units of upper division or graduate study in the area of disability to include: learning disability, developmental disabilities, deaf and hearing impaired physical disabilities; or adapted computer technology.
WORKING CONDITIONS

Environmental Conditions:
Office environment; exposure to computer screens, noise and electrical energy; extensive contact with faculty, staff, and students.

Physical Conditions:
Essential and marginal functions require maintaining physical condition necessary for ambulating for extended periods of time.