Each student is responsible for following the rules and regulations in this catalog. Furthermore, each student is responsible for his/her enrollment in classes and for attending classes. The College is not liable if the student fails to read and understand the rules.

Academic Accommodations for Students with Disabilities
The Palomar Community College District (PCCD) is committed to all provisions of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) of 1990, and Section 508 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973. Students with verified disabilities who may require academic adjustments or auxiliary aids are strongly recommended to contact the Disability Resource Center (DRC) and complete orientation procedures well before classes begin to ensure timely provision of services. For further information regarding academic accommodation procedures, please contact DRC at (760) 744-1150, ext. 2375 or visit our website at www.palomar.edu/dspss. Questions regarding academic accommodations may also be directed to the College ADA Officer at (760) 744-1150, ext. 2154.

Academic Integrity
The Center for Academic Integrity at Duke University defines academic integrity as a commitment, even in the face of adversity, to five fundamental values: honesty, trust, fairness, respect, and responsibility. From these values flow principles of behavior that enable academic communities to translate ideals into action.

Palomar College is wholly committed to the idea and ideals of academic integrity. We embrace and adopt the definition and related principles of academic integrity provided by the Center for Academic Integrity stated in the paragraph above. Following are the explanations of the five principles as provided by the Center for Academic Integrity and adopted by Palomar College.

1. Honesty: Begins with oneself and extends to others. In the quest for knowledge, we must be honest with ourselves and with each other, whether in the classroom, laboratory, meeting, library, or on the playing field.
2. Trust: Only with trust can we believe in the research and efforts of others and move forward with new work. Only with trust can we collaborate with individuals, sharing information and ideas without concern that our work will be misappropriated or misused, our reputations diminished, or our academic careers harmed. Only with trust can our communities believe in the social and economic value and meaning of an institution’s scholarship and degrees.
3. Fairness: Important components of fairness are predictability, clear expectations, and a consistent and just response to dishonesty. All campus constituencies have a role in ensuring fairness and a sense of participation by one member of the community does not excuse misconduct by another.
4. Respect: Demonstrated by attending class, being on time, paying attention, following instructions, and being prepared and contributing to discussions, meeting academic deadlines, and performing to the best of our ability. Being rude, demeaning, or disruptive is the antithesis of respectful conduct. We show respect for the work of others by acknowledging our intellectual debts through proper identification of sources.
5. Responsibility: Shared responsibility distributes the power to effect change, helps overcome apathy, and stimulates personal investment in upholding academic integrity standards. Being responsible means taking action against wrongdoing, despite peer pressure, fear, loyalty, or compassion. At a minimum, individuals should take responsibility for their own honesty and should discourage and seek to prevent misconduct by others. Whatever the circumstances, members of an academic community must not tolerate or ignore dishonesty on the part of others.

Debts Owed to the College
Debts occur when a student fails to repay money borrowed from the College, violates a student financial aid contract, fails to pay tuition and/or enrollment fees, library fines, or bookstore charges. Debts also occur when the student fails to reimburse the College for a returned check, does not return or account for athletic equipment/uniforms, or fails to pay scheduled fees for other services provided by the College. This list of debts is not all inclusive and may include others not specifically listed. If a delinquent debt is sent to the Chancellor's Office Tax Offset Program or another collection agency, a 3% penalty charge will be added to the balance owed.

Palomar College reserves the right to withhold all further services until the debt is paid in full. Grades and transcripts may be withheld until all financial obligations are cleared.

Drugs and Alcohol Policy
It is the policy of the Palomar Community College District to provide, maintain, encourage, and support a drug-free and alcohol-free campus. The commitment of this policy is to education, prevention, rehabilitation, and recovery. An alcohol-free and drug-free campus will promote the safety and health of students, employees, and the public.

All employees and students are clearly and expressly prohibited from possessing, using, or using alcohol or illegal drugs, or controlled substances on campus, at any school-sponsored event, or while acting within the scope of employment.

The complete Code of Conduct may be found on the Student Affairs web page at: www2.palomar.edu/pages/studentaffairs/home/student-discipline/ and is also available in the Office of Student Affairs, SU-201.

Parking and Traffic Regulations
Parking Permits
A permit from the College is required for all vehicles on District property 24 hours a day, seven days a week. The permit must be placed on the rear-view mirror when parked or, if you have a convertible, a decal may be affixed to the right rear bumper or right rear window and on the left front fork of motorcycles.

Permits may be purchased at the Cashier's Office on the San Marcos campus and at the Palomar College Escondido Center. They may also be purchased online with a credit card via eServices at www.palomar.edu up to one week prior to the beginning of the semester. Once payment has been received and the mailing address confirmed, the permit will be mailed to the student. Online purchase of permits will continue after the mailing cut-off date three weeks into the semester; however, the permits must be personally picked up by the student at the Police Department located in Parking Lot 1, at the main entrance. Semester permits are only valid from the date of purchase through the expiration date printed on the permits. Refunds for parking permits are granted during the first two weeks of each semester, and thereafter in cases of unusual circumstances which can be confirmed through appropriate documentation.

BOGW-eligible students may purchase a parking permit at a reduced rate. "Only one discounted permit is allowed per semester. If a regular permit is purchased and the student becomes BOGW eligible at a later date, there will be no refund issued.

Students should only purchase a parking permit through authorized sales channels, and the re-sale of parking permits is prohibited. Students who purchase permits from unauthorized sellers may find themselves liable for possessing a stolen or counterfeit parking permit. Citations for using lost/stolen or counterfeit permits will be subject to a fine, and the offender may also be referred to the Office of Student Affairs for violation of the Student Conduct Code.

One-day permits may be purchased for $5.00 (fee is subject to change without further notice) from machines located in lots 3, 5, 9, and 12, on the main campus, and at the Escondido Center in lots 1, 2, and 3 beginning in Fall 2013. Permit machines take $1's, $5's, and coins, as well as ATM or credit cards. Permits will be honored in student lots only. A two-hour visitor permit and an emergency/temporary one-day (limited to one per semester) student permit may be obtained from the Campus Police Office and the Escondido Center’s Police Storefront. These permits are valid for the designated time period, in designated spaces/lots only, and along the roadway where parking is authorized. Overnight parking is not allowed without prior approval from the College Police Department. Violators will be towed at owner’s expense and/or cited.

Citations

The Police Department will issue citations to cars that do not display the appropriate parking permits if the cars are parked in spaces designated for handicapped, disabled students, Wellness Center, staff or visitors—this applies to all College parking lots at all times.

Vehicles receiving Palomar College citations have the same legal status as parking citations issued by any other law enforcement agency in California. C.V.C. (California Vehicle Code) and parking permit violations are enforced 24 hours a day/7 days a week. Citations may be satisfied by paying the fine (bail) within 21 days at the San Marcos campus Cashier’s Office. Bail will also be accepted by check or money order via U.S. mail (the citation must accompany the bail deposit). Credit card payments may also be made at PayMyCite.com once the citation has been forwarded to the processing center. After 21 calendar days, unpaid citations become delinquent and a late fee equal to the amount of the fine may be assessed. All registered owners are responsible for the citations issued to their vehicle.

Palomar College Police Officers are not authorized to dismiss citations. A formal “Appeals Process” is in place. If you wish to appeal a citation, the forms are available on line at the Police/Parking web page at www.palomar.edu or at the Police Department. The violator shall request the appeal within 21 calendar days of the date of issuance. Administrative Dismissal of one violation per calendar year may be granted for a “failure to display a valid parking permit” violation. You must show proof of purchase prior to issuance (date and time) of the citation. This request will be reviewed by Police Department staff and may be granted at that time. Administrative Dismissals apply equally to all students, faculty and staff members of the Palomar Community College District, and it applies to permit violations only.

For further information regarding citations or regulations, contact the College Police Department at (760) 744-1150, ext. 2289 or view the department web page at www.palomar.edu/police.

The District shall provide and maintain a workplace and learning environment that is smoke and tobacco-free to promote the safety and health of students, employees, and the public. Student Behavior Rules and Regulations

Students at Palomar College are responsible for regulating their own conduct and for respecting the rights and privileges of others. Palomar students are expected to conduct themselves in a manner compatible with the function of the College as an educational institution, and respect and obey all civil and criminal laws. Failure to abide by the standards as set forth by Palomar College is cause for disciplinary action.

Guidelines for student conduct are set forth in the California Education Code, California Administrative Code Title 5, policies of the Board of Trustees, and all civil and criminal codes.

In compliance with California Education Code Section 66300, 72282, and 72292, and in keeping with the above, regulations have been established to effectively and efficiently provide for the approved educational programs, approved student activities, and community services. Student conduct must conform to District and College rules and regulations. Student Discipline Procedures (AP 5520) provide a prompt and equitable means to address violations of the Standards of Conduct, which guarantees to the student or students involved the due process rights guaranteed to them by the California and United States Constitutions.

If a Student Code of Conduct violation occurs while a student is enrolled at Palomar College, he or she may be disciplined. The Standards of Conduct categories of behavior are not intended to be an exhaustive list, but are examples of causes and are good and sufficient causes for discipline, including but not limited to, verbal and written reprimand, removal from class, probation, short-term and long-term suspension or expulsion of a student. Other misconduct not listed may also result in discipline if good cause exists (Education Code, 76034). The student must attend a disciplinary hearing to ensure due process rights.

The Code of Conduct that details the standards is administered by the Director of Student Affairs. Also See BP 5030, titled Fees and BP 5130 titled Financial Aid, which addresses consequences of disciplinary action. The complete Student Code of Conduct is available in the Office of Student Affairs, SU-201, or on the Palomar College Student Affairs web page at www2.palomar.edu/pages/studentaffairs/home/student-discipline.

Student Right To Know

As a consumer, you have a right to know about your chances of college success. “Student Right-To-Know” (SRTK) refers to a Federally-mandated public disclosure of a college’s Completion Rate and Transfer Rate. The intent of SRTK is to provide to the consumer, a statistic of comparable effectiveness that they can use in the determination of college choice.

SRTK is a “cohort” study; that is, a group of students who are first-time freshmen who are enrolled full-time and are degree-seeking is identified in a fall term and their outcomes are measured over a period of time. The outcomes that the two SRTK rates measure are Completion (the total number of students in the cohort who earn either a degree, a certificate, or who successfully completed a two-year-equivalent transfer-preparatory program) and Transfer (the total number of cohort non-completers who were identified as having enrolled in another institution). The tracking period of the cohorts is three (3) years, at which time the SRTK rates are calculated and made public. See http://srtk.cccco.edu/index.asp for further information, as well as for specific college data.
