

HISTORY 101

Chapter 9 Worksheet

1. In 1790, how many blacks were there in America, where did most live, and what did they labor upon?
2. How many newspapers were published in America in 1790?
3. Most Americans lived in a semi subsistence economy. Describe this type of economy.
4. To establish the federal government, Congress authorized the creation of four departments. List the four departments.
5. What was the result of the Judiciary Act of 1789?
6. To strengthen the new federal government, Alexander Hamilton proposed the government repay state, foreign, and domestic debt arising from the Revolution. How much was owed?
7. Why did many Americans dislike political parties?
8. Hamilton organized the Federalist party. Who organized the opposition Republicans?
9. Who were the two major candidates for president in the election of 1800?
10. Why did William Marbury sue James Madison?
11. For the Supreme Court, what is the power of judicial review?
12. Political festivals increased democracy in the early republic. What did they do during these political holidays?
13. Who wrote the first slave narrative published in the United States? When was it published?
14. Who drew up plans to shape the new capital city for the U.S? What did the plans include for Washington D.C?
15. What was the battle that broke the Native Americans hold on the Northwest?
16. How many American ships were seized by the British navy between 1803 and 1807?
17. What American gained fame by defeating the Creek "Red Stick" warriors at the Battle of Horseshoe Bend?