Career help offered

By Cris Fraser
Staff Writer

Are you undecided about your future and career choices?

"Planning ahead is extremely important," says John Dise, director of the Career Center in Palomar College's counseling department, "and the Career Center is here to help."

Visitors to the Career Center, located inside the Student Services Building, can obtain various leaflets and pamphlets pertaining to how to plan a career.

Seminars and workshops are also available.

Group Career Assessment two-hour open-forum discussions involving career selection and advice will be held on Sept. 21 and 28 from 10 a.m. until noon. Sign-ups are available at the Career Center.

Also, a table of counselors staffed by Dise will hold Quick Career Counseling in the Student Union on Sept. 19 from 10 a.m. til 11 a.m. and Sept 26 from 11 a.m. until noon. Students can simply drop by and ask any questions regarding their choices.

The Career Center also brings different guest speakers on campus. On Sept. 30 at 11 a.m. in room S-3, guest speaker and C.P.A. John Lucy will talk about careers in accounting. Future guest speakers include an attorney, a filmmaker, persons from the California Highway Patrol and the Secret Service, and many others. For additional information call Dise at Ext. 2189 or 2194, or just drop by the Career Center.

Guest speaker praised

I would like to thank the Career Center for bringing Mr. John Lucy to the college on Sept. 20, 1988 to speak on the career of Accounting. I found the information he provided to be very helpful in answering the questions I have about the profession, and as a student of Palomar and as a student senator who has asked others about the idea of bringing in industry speakers, the students agree it's a great and helpful idea.

Please take note that if not for Prof. Williams of the Business Department announcing the date of Mr. Lucy's appearance, I would have missed this opportunity ... it may be necessary to improve the notice to students of these meetings.

Frank Gravante

Free career change workshops offered

SAN MARCOS — Residents in the Palomar Community College district who are thinking about a career change can attend career assessment workshops provided free several times each semester.

The purpose of the workshops is to help participants identify their talents, interests and values in order to make intelligent career decisions.

The next workshop will be held from 2-4 p.m. Thursday at the campus Career Center, which also sponsors guest speakers on various careers from 11 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. each Thursday.

For more information, call 744-1180, ext. 2189.