PALOMAR COLLEGE CAREER COUNSELING VIDEO AIRS ON LOCAL TELEVISION

Palomar College’s Career Center will air a television show called “Success with John Dise” every Monday from 11-11:30 p.m.

The program, which started Sept. 11, will broadcast on Dimension cable channel 23 and Daniels cable channel 35.

Dise has been a career counselor at Palomar College for 17 years and is director of the Career Center. “The video program shows how five local people with different goals found practical career guidance and instruction at the Palomar Career Center,” said Dise.

The career center is located in the Student Services Center on Palomar’s main campus at 1140 W. Mission Rd. Its resources are open to everyone and are designed for people who are entering their first career and for those who want to change careers.

For more information, call 749-1150, extension 2194.

Palomar College’s womens volleyball team had its way with visiting Christian Heritage College, winning a nonconference match 3-0 Friday night at the Palomar Dome.

LuRee Thomas, a 5-foot-5 freshman from New Castle, Wyo., recorded six kills to lead coach Teri McFarland’s Comets.

The match was the Comets’ season opener. The Hawks fell to 0-3.

Palomar women’s hoop team is holding tryouts
SAN MARCOS — Women interested in playing intercollegiate basketball at Palomar College are encouraged to contact Coach Jon Cnossen at the athletic department, 744-1150, extension 2460 or 2484.

Daily conditioning class is currently being held from noon to 1 p.m. and official practice sessions begin Oct. 16.

The Career Center is located in the Student Services Center on Palomar’s main campus at 1140 W. Mission Road in San Marcos.

More information on the career center is available at 744-1150, extension 2194.

RAMONA-SENTINEL
SEP 21 1989

Career Center televises counseling program

Palomar College’s Career Center will air a television show called “Success with John Dise” every Monday from 11-11:30 p.m.

“The video program shows how five local people with different goals found practical career guidance and instruction at the Palomar Career Center,” said Dise.

The program shows interviews with Dr. Doug Hectrick, a chiropractor in Escondido; David Lucero, a native American in his last year of medical school at UC Davis; Elizabeth Dobbs, a real state agent currently working on a teacher’s credential at Palomar College; Lorin Kelly, a black student and entrepreneur; and Peter Gonzales, a public administrator working in Los Angeles.

“We want people in San Diego County to be aware of the many free-of-charge services and the type of motivational support the Palomar College Career Center has to offer,” Dise said.

The Career Center is located in the Student Services Center on Palomar’s main campus at 1140 W. Mission Road in San Marcos.

More information on the career center is available at 744-1150, extension 2194.