Career workshops

The Palomar College community education department will offer seven one-day workshops beginning Feb. 24 at the San Marcos Palomar campus, 1140 W. Mission Road.

William Mansfield will take his students step-by-step through the real estate world in a workshop called “So You Want to Sell Real Estate!” from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The fee is $35.

“How to Start and Profit from a Successful Home-Based Typing/Word Processing Business” is the subject of LeeAnne Krusemark’s seminar, meeting from 1 to 4 p.m. The fee is $20, plus $10 materials fee that will be collected in class.

Krusemark also will conduct a workshop called “How to Become a More Effective Manager” from 9 a.m. to noon. The cost is $20, plus $10 materials fee to be collected in class.

Karin Wickliffe will lead a seminar call “So You Want to be a Travel Agent” from 9 a.m. to noon. Wickliffe will discuss the types of travel jobs, the education needed for each, the rate of pay and travel opportunities. The cost is $19.

For business persons who are always using the phone, Tomi Magyar will teach “Successful Telephone Techniques” from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. The cost is $21.

John Dise, career counselor at Palomar College and director of its Career Center, will lead a workshop called “Discovering a Satisfying, Meaningful Career” from noon to 3 p.m. The cost is $19, plus a $5 materials fee.

Clinical psychologist Dr. Denruth Lougeay will conduct a seminar called “Personality: What Makes You Tick?” from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. The cost is $19.

Mall-in, walk-in and phone-in registration is available. For reservations and more information, call 744-1150, extension 2189.

Career planning conference is scheduled

Career planning is the subject of a free conference Wednesday, Feb. 1, from 1-3 p.m. in Palomar College’s governing board room. The college is located at 1140 W. Mission Road, San Marcos.

The conference is co-sponsored by the Palomar College Career Center and the Career Development Division of the American Society for Training and Development (ASTD).

The conference, which is designed for professional career counselors as well as people planning their own careers, is open to the public.

For more information, contact John Dise of the Palomar College Career Center at 744-1150 or 727-7529, ext. 2189.