A Journey into the Deaf-World

Chapter 3

Page 42 Second par - whole text. Third par - first line.

Page 43 Top paragraph until ... forms of spoken languages”. Third par “The first fallacy... to the end of the par.

Page 44 Top paragraph - whole text. Second par “However, signed languages.. to the end of the par. Last part of third par “Similarly, ASL... are compared”.

Page 45 Top paragraph - whole text. Second par “Each language... growing in numbers” Second par “some Deaf-World...as late as adolescence”. Third par “The striking finding.. first words in signed language”. End of the paragraph “Sign productions... to the end of the par.

Page 46 Top paragraph - whole text.

Page 47 Second paragraph - whole text.

Page 48 Third paragraph - whole text.

Page 49 Second and third paragraph - whole text.

Page 50 Top two lines.

Page 51 Second par - whole text. Third par in the middle “Such contact language... a restricted vocabulary”. Fourth par - first line.

Page 52 Last paragraph - whole text.

Page 55 Whole text

Page 56-57 Whole text

Page 58 Last line in the first par. Second par in the middle “Yet another... to the end of the par. Third par - whole text.

Page 59 Second par - whole text. Third par “The second approach... to speak, read and write”. 