i. Philosophical Outsiders

Meets every other Tuesday MD 316, 5:30 PM-7 PM. Focus is discussing controversial philosophical topics usually not gone over in class.

ii. NASA

Meets every Thursday MD 134, 2:30 PM. October is Native American Month. Is currently planning to do an event/mixer with the other clubs on Oct. 14 (tentative) by the clock tower. Club also had a booth last week to invite more students to join, and planning more events this month.

iii. Circle K

Meets every Tuesday HS 208. Is looking for local community service events. Participated in Comet Celebration last Tuesday and Wednesday to invite more students to join.

iv. Woodworking

Letter-writing campaign for the Urban Lumber program was successful. Administration met with the club chair and clarified that the program is not being shut down but is being relocated to area behind Facilities Department. There is no set date for relocation. Meeting will be held on Thursday to figure out the club's options, and possibly help the administration. Pizza party held on Monday was successful.

v. Chem Club

Is planning a presentation on October 20 featuring current and former Palomar students and their internship experiences.

vi. Active Minds

Meets every Friday at 10 AM. Is also a part of the Palomar Dance Team. Club has yet to have their first meeting.

B. Chairperson's Report (Chairman Armando Contreras)

Chairperson announces that Stock the Bank begins November 2nd, and all clubs are encouraged to bring in non-perishable food items. ICC will also likely hold a small contest for club contributions, and will allocate points to clubs for participating. Point allocation will be discussed in the next meeting. Chairperson thanks No Limits representative for taking over the beginning of the meeting, and announces that he might not be present at next week's ICC meeting due to his participation to an ASG trip to Los Angeles.

C. Advisor's Report (Marilyn Lunde)

Advisor relayed that Comet Hour is coming up on the October 25th, Halloween escape on October 30th. Spring reinstatement papers are also available online, so that clubs can work on them in January. Advisor suggests submitting the papers to the OSA by the first week of Spring semester. OSA is also looking for Federal Work-Study applicants, and students are encouraged to apply. Advisor reminds clubs that the glass bulletin board outside of SU 202 is available for clubs to use for club ads, as well as the S.E.A.L Center.

8. Weekly Discussion Item: Ideas and View on Board Room and S.E.A.L. Center

Chairperson Armando opened discussion for suggestions on changes to the boardroom (specifically the club wall) and to the S.E.A.L. center. Advisor Marilyn relays that 12 new computers, and a smart screen/monitors for presentations, had just been ordered for the S.E.A.L. center. Printers are available as well for clubs to use (10 copies per person). All new resources should be at the center in about three weeks.
