Spring 2018 – All courses taught in Canvas
Palomar College

- Selected and successfully piloted and adapted Canvas LMS; we joined OEI. We are in a 1-year transition to migrate to Canvas from Blackboard.
- Applied the Revamp Project recommendations and transformed more 88% of our websites to WordPress, after establishing a college standard template.
- Adapted Siteimprove tool for our websites accessibility.
- Transforming all of our web services to the Red hat Linux environment.
- Trained faculty POET (Palomar Online Education Training), with 24 new certificates in 2016.
- Developed and implemented Kaltura as our Streaming Server and integrated it with our LMS through new policies and procedures to comply with the TEACH act and ADA/Section 508.
- Introduced 3D printing services, options for classroom capture, and portable smart boards.
- Established increased student services for online students: proctoring, counseling, and tutoring.
- Initiated investigations for district-wide online student orientations.
- Conducted a successful Accreditation visit.
New DEFT (Distance Education Faculty Training) Certification Program, featuring a 5-week, 40-hour, fully online DE training course in Canvas.

- DEFT or equivalent will be required for DE effective 8/10/17

New DE Mentor Program: 50 DEFT-certified mentors specialize in course design, Canvas, accessibility, multimedia, etc.

- Ongoing training: DE workshop and webinar series, pre-semester HOW TO Academy

Canvas Subscription Training and local SWC training, including Canvas Basics and nine specialty topics

- Canvas student orientations: on campus, online, and video

- New site licenses for Camtasia, Snagit, VoiceThread, and VeriCite
Imperial Valley College

- Participating in the OEI pilot (one of the 16 colleges)
- We hope to launch two courses with OEI Fall 2017
- Currently transitioning to Canvas
- Faculty are currently attending multiple Canvas trainings: online and on-campus
- With the transition to Canvas, students are given options for the following LTI’s:
  - NetTutor, Proctorio, Vericite, Cranium Café, and Quest for Online Success
San Diego Community College District.

SDCCD Online Learning Pathways:

- Developed an OER Repository for Open Resources
  Site allows faculty to blog and post resources
- Developed training videos for developing courses in Canvas
  Videos are being developed for the pending transition
- Implemented SmarterMeasure in the Online Student Orientation
  During the first week of it going live, over 100 students took the assessment
- Will be sending out the bi-annual Online Student Satisfaction Survey in March
  Survey will be sent to all SDCCD Online students
