Organization Background

Our Mission is Bridging Business Opportunity with Community Growth. The Bonsall Chamber started in 1990 and has been through many transitions. We are a very unique community with no "downtown" so to speak. We have little "brick & mortar" businesses so we are reaching out to the smaller home based businesses so that we can better service our community with a better understanding and access to those businesses.

Key Responsibilities

Ensure member retention and implement plans for membership growth, Promote and attend Chamber activities and events, Facilitates new memberships, help develop marketing strategies, deepen and refine all aspects of communication from web presence to external relations with the goal of creating a stronger brand, Provides support to the Executive Administrator and any committees appointed by the Board. Keeps them informed about the Chamber's membership sales, activities and issues.
