

GENERAL ESL CLASSES at Palomar College

NESL 901: Noncredit class

A beginning ESL class for people who know no English.
Students practice listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Students write: letters, words, and very short sentences
Students read: words and short sentences

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- ✓ name items commonly found in the classroom, home, or community.
- ✓ answer yes/no questions about items in the classroom.

NESL 901

NESL 902

NESL 902: Noncredit class

A beginning ESL class for people who know a little English.
Students practice listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Students write: words and short sentences
Students read: words and sentences

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- ✓ describe everyday activities.
- ✓ fill out a basic job application.

NESL 903

NESL 903: Noncredit class

A high-beginning ESL class for people who know some English.
Students practice listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Students write: words and sentences
Students read: words, sentences, and short paragraphs

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- ✓ describe a thing or a place in 5-7 sentences.
- ✓ find and copy required information from a chart.

NESL 904

NESL 904: Noncredit class

A low-intermediate ESL class for people who can speak, read and write basic English.
Students practice listening, speaking, reading, and writing.

Students write: sentences and paragraphs
Students read: words, sentences, and paragraphs

At the end of the course, students will be able to:

- ✓ write an organized paragraph.
- ✓ speak clearly on a topic for 2-3 minutes.

*Students who pass this class can earn an official Palomar certificate in noncredit ESL.