

Directed Learning Activity: Making Yes/No Questions in the Present Tense

Time expected to complete: 30 minutes

Intended course level: NESL 302

Materials Needed: Worksheet and grammar book if needed

Objective: Students will practice writing yes/no questions in the present tense. After each question, they will practice writing short responses.

Activity: Students will write twenty yes/no questions and appropriate short responses. Each sentence will have a given subject the student must use. Students will use the verb expressions on the worksheet to make the questions. Each expression should be used once. (Students can cross out an expression after they use it to avoid confusion.) After each question, students will write an appropriate short response – either negative or affirmative.

Review (10-20 minutes):

Review your work with your tutor.

1. Read out your questions and your short responses.

Tutor Feedback/Reflection:

- _____ Student was prepared for meeting with the tutor.
- _____ Student worked independently.
- _____ Student completed DLA.
- _____ Student may need further assistance.

Suggestions or comments:

Student Name _____

Date _____

Length of Session _____

Tutor Signature _____