

OnCourse Online survey

Sat, Apr 27 10:40 AM

Room: 2438

(kfalcone@palomar.edu)

Name and college of each group member	How many of your group members currently teach online	Come up with 3 words that describe an OnCourse online course.	Your teams #1 strategy for online communication	Your teams #1 strategy for online collaboration	Your teams #1 strategy for online communication	Your teams #1 strategy for online course design
Angelina Misaghi, Santa Monica College Patricia Thomas, Univ of Texas Arlington Dana Arrowood, Univ of Texas Arlington Lisa	4 or more	interactive reflective fun	- clear expectations and etiquette standards - screencast or video welcomes - skype office hours - daily or weekly announcements	- providing multiple ways for them to "meet" such as telephone, skype, wikis, Google docs, VoiceThread, discussion boards, etc.	- synchronous and asynchronous ways for them to interact in groups: Facebook groups, homepages, chatrooms - have prompts for them to share information about themselves	- welcome announcement - weekly agenda and checklist - weekly modules - they need to know what we are going to do and WHY - what is new and due - screencasts/videos to explain syllabus or assignments
Lisa from Walla Walla CC	4 or more	Collaborative, active, student-
Laura Perry, Jennifer Boyle, Heather Watson Davidson Co Community College Nikki Williams El Camino College	4 or more
Lyndsi Litten & Robyn Roche, College of the Sequoias	0	Dive deep together	Clear expectations and directions, netiquette, and less reliance on text.	Use doodle for small group meetings.	Netiquette, clear expectations and directions, less emphasis on text.	Make the syllabus a module with quizzes, use video lectures and instructions, give weekly feedback summaries.
Jennifer Harper Ohlone College	4 or more	Having college success	Have students do an e-mail at the beginning of the term to describe netiquette.	Using Doodle to help students find common meeting times.	Have students create a homepage.	Have calendar of assignments for semester.
Iris Modest CC David and Nancy WallaWallaCC Robin and Brenda RCC Abla Solano CC	3

Chris - San Juan college Steve- south Seattle community college Mark- el camino community college Cheryl- college of merin Rick- university Texas Madeline- SJ city Barbara - DVC	2	Interactive, learner centered, self paced	Netiquette
Build community- assign family's, blogs, wikis Design-send email with checklist,a "screencast" of getting started. Collaboration- peer assisted learning, peer review assgts,wikis, schedule face time Online communication-never use all caps, discuss netiquette, use email
Sara Egbert - Walla Walla community College Mary Boyce - Mesa Community College in Arizona	1	Interactive User friendly Quality	We are unsure at this point, this is why we are here.
Ana Maria (Ia) Carbonell Diablo Valley College Johanna. M Smith UT Arlington Laurel Mayo, UT Arlington Judy Crozier El Camino College	3	Interactive Active Learning centered
John Van Slyke Walla Walla CC Shana Smith Walla Walla CC Lynn fowler. Clinton community college Nicole Adsitt Cayuga Community College	4 or more	Engaging Collaborative Reflective	24 hour roll call	Use of a sites like Google docs, Digital Dropbox, Collaborate, Elluminate!, and Skype, etc to support group work and interaction.