

CSUSM in Partnership with the San Marcos Writing Project, The Alliance,
Grossmont-Cuyamaca College Basic Skills Grant and NCPDF

~ Presents ~

“Preparing College-Ready Writers” Workshop Series

The focus for each of the days will be to collaborate and align the skills, knowledge and ability students need in writing to meet California ELA and ELD State standards and to make a successful transition from high school to higher education and to the world of work. High school teachers and college faculty will meet and discuss the topic of the day.

Registration

Saturday, October 28, 2017 – What Does College-Ready Writing Mean? <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-137384>

Saturday, December 9, 2017 – Writing Across the Disciplines <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-137385>

Saturday, February 3, 2018 – Developing Effective Prompts & Assignments <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-137386>

Saturday, April 28, 2018 – Effective Feedback and Supporting the Writing of English Learners <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-137387>

Saturday, June 2, 2018 – College Ready Research <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-137388>

All five sessions <http://sdcoe.k12oms.org/1020-137309>

Times for all workshops: 8:30 – 9:00 AM – Check-in, Breakfast & Registration
9:00 AM – 3:00 PM - Workshop

Fee: All five sessions for $100 or $25 per session
Fee includes workshop, breakfast, lunch and parking (in designated area)

Audience: High School teachers, CSUSM General Education Writing faculty, and faculty from other disciplines
NCPDF member districts will be given priority

Location: California State University San Marcos
333 Twin Oaks Valley Road
San Marcos, CA 92096

Space is limited – please register soon!

Professional Development Federation

For workshop information:
Brenda Hall, Director of NCPDF
brhall@sdcoe.net

For registration information:
Diane Hallam, Administrative Assistant
dhallam@sdcoe.net or 760-632-2360