

NORTH COUNTY LGBTQ RESOURCE CENTER

The QueerTheVoteUp Campaign is a non-partisan campaign lead by the North County LGBTQ Resource Center that aims to educate on civics and social justice. In the next few weeks till the elections The QueerTheVoteUp Campaign will be focusing on calling registered voters that in the past have voted for issues of equality. The calls are to remember registered voters where (location) to cast their vote. Each volunteer will be provided a list of registered voters and a script on what to say when to call. A volunteer can enroll in different phone banking from the comfort of their home and often held during the evening times when people are at home.
