

INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY

Regional Recruitment Event

NOVEMBER 17, 2020 | 1-7 p.m. ET | IntelligenceCareers.gov

Attention students! The U.S. Intelligence Community (IC) is seeking culturally diverse, technologically savvy and highly skilled applicants in several fields, from Intelligence Analysis to Business to Foreign Language.

In the IC, diversity is about cultivating an environment where talented individuals of all backgrounds can contribute to something bigger than themselves - our national security. So on Tuesday, November 17th - join us for a virtual recruitment event showcasing these and other great employment opportunities.

The best part? It's easy! Right from your computer, tablet or phone, you'll have the opportunity to connect with recruiters from some of the nation's largest intelligence agencies. Just sit back, login and find out what it's like to work for the FBI or NSA in fields specific to your interests.

Seats are limited so reserve your spot today - <http://tinyurl.com/y5khh6x7>

Who: Graduate and Undergraduate Students interested in Intelligence Analysis, STEM, Data Science, Law Enforcement and Security, Foreign Language and Business

What: The Intelligence Community Regional Recruitment Event representing 17 IC Agencies and IC Partnering Agencies

Where: Your nearest hot spot!

When: Tuesday, November 17, 2020, from 1 - 7 p.m. ET (10 a.m. - 4 p.m. PT)

Why: To discover the benefits of a challenging and rewarding career in the IC. Chat with recruiters and subject matter experts, explore career fields, watch live presentations and mingle with your peers.

Register Today - <http://tinyurl.com/y5khh6x7>