

Hal's Three Worlds

In Henry IV pt 1, Shakespeare has 4 main characters. Each character lives in a different world. Henry IV can only survive in the past remembering the way things were. Falstaff only survives in the present, wanting work can be glorified by the more and more. Hotspur die only survive in the future, looking towards what glories will be bestowed on him. Each are comfortable only in their own worlds, not venturing to the others. But the survivors in all 3. He is comfortable in all 3 which makes him the strongest character.
